

Pro Valley products are developed right here in Southern Illinois using data gathered from plots and trials on farms just like yours. Many Pro Valley products are unique to Wabash Valley and it's soil and environmental conditions. You can be assured if it has a Pro Valley label it is designed with Southern Illinois in mind.

Pro Valley Gold XL is an In Furrow Row Starter offered by Wabash Valley for nearly 8 years. A proven, quality row starter to get your corn and soybean crops off to the best start possible. With the option of other add on products like Capture, Trafix Zn and Biologicals PVGXL is a complete seedling vigor system. New for 2013 is our PVG XL equipment program, check with your local WVSC Crop Specialist for details on this simple program for planter equipment.

Pro Valley Sentry and Sentry AT protect your wheat crop from Germination to Dormancy. A special blend of Fungicides, Insecticides and other biological products help give your wheat crop the best start possible.

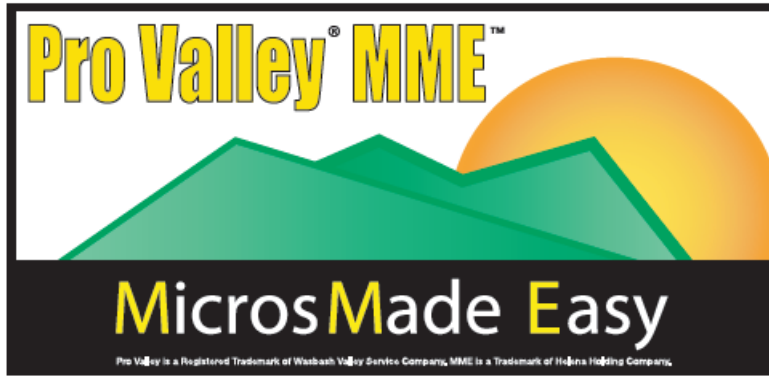

Pro Valley Eclipse is a high quality, Versa rate technology spray adjuvant that fits the environmental conditions of southern Illinois. One product covers most of your adjuvant needs. PV Eclipse is recognized by our Crop Protection suppliers as a choice product for the application of fungicides in all crops.

Pro Valley Intake II, our very first PV product, is a proven spray solution amendment with AMS, a deposition aid, and defoamer. A great quality, reliable product.

Pro Valley Stand Booster seed treatment products are one of the most diverse lines of soybean seed enhancements available today. We are constantly looking at new products and practices to improve the first few weeks of a crops life. Fungicides, Insecticides, Nematocides, Inoculants, catalytic growth promoters, and much more to come for this outstanding product line.

Pro Valley MME, Micros Made Easy, is the newest product to be added to the ProValley label. A homogenous blend of Micro, Macro and Secondary Nutrients for easy blending and even spreading. Developed using soil tests, tissue tests and trial data from right here, on your farms, Pro Valley MME is a perfect solution to nutrient deficiencies in your fields. Contact your local WVSC Nutrient Management Specialist for information on how Pro Valley MME can boost your yields on corn and wheat.

The Pro Valley Product line: products to improve the profitability of our customers farms. Quality Products developed and manufactured for Southern Illinois and it's unique challenges in growing a profitable crop. Watch here for more products coming soon, we are constantly doing research for you to bring you the best products to fit your operation.